Rights and Title Department, shíshálh Nation

Thank you for submitting your application to the shíshálh Nation. The Rights and Title Department can assist you if you have questions about how to initiate your application.

An application should include enough information to form an understanding of the nature of the proposed activity. The checklist on the application form is a useful guide. In general, the following information is required:

- Information outlining the request being made
- Identification of lands and resources that may be impacted by the proposed activity e.g. Lot number, PID number
- All studies (e.g. environmental, archaeological, or requests for study) that have been completed
- The individual or organization that will be carrying out the activity
- All relevant plans, hard copy maps, GIS shapefiles, drawings, or photos
- Any documents shared with other governments such as the Ministry or SCRD regarding the application
- Anticipated start and completion dates for the activity, if applicable
- The economic realities of the proposed activity, including proposed benefits.

Please address all correspondence to Chief and Council, shíshálh Nation care of the Rights and Title Department.

Your application will be reviewed through the shíshálh* Nation Lands and Resources Decision-Making Policy. A copy of the policy is available on our website, www.sechelnation.net. Please review our Policy so that you have a full understanding of how the application will be reviewed and a decision made. Further information may be required following our Preliminary Assessment. During our Preliminary Assessment we will determine if archeological studies are required and will be in contact with you to discuss commissioning of the studies.

Land altering activity should not begin until we have completed our review of the project and you have received our approval.

If you have further questions please contact the Rights and Title Department at 604.740.5600.
