I would like to introduce myself as most shishalh Nation members may know who I am, but to the newly eligible voters may not. My name is Alvina Elaine Paul, my parents are Lucille Joe and Anthony Paul. I have 3 loving children Jamel, Tyrell and Maryah.

I currently am on the Chief and Council team and would like to continue to serve for the next term. I believe with the Nation's opportunities and direction of governance we can accomplish many more great programs and services.

My experiences from this current term have been valuable in learning to understand our governance, responsibilities, functionalities, political stands and legal requirements. I would like to continue on this to ensure that we, as the shishalh Nation, strive on becoming the model Nation to all other sister Nations for paths to sustainability.

My hope for our Nation is very near and dear to me: to help ensure we live in wellness, health and a community that holds each other up, and to lead with our people.

Thank you,

Alvina Paul
