Application Process

To submit an application to the shíshálh Nation Rights and Title Department, please fill in the application form on page 2/3 and send it by email to <lilxmit@shishalh.com>. Please make sure to attach the application form completed, and all relevant materials to your email.

The Rights and Title Department can assist you if you have questions. Enquiries can be made by email (lilxmit@shishalh.com) or phone (604.740.5600).

Your application should include enough information to form an understanding of the nature of the proposed activity. The attachments checklist on the application form is a useful guide. Depending on the type of application, the following information may be required:

- Information outlining the request being made
- Location information/identification of lands and resources that for the proposed activity e.g. Civic Address, Lot number, PID number
- Any studies (e.g. environmental, archaeological, geotechnical etc.) that have been completed to date regarding the proposed activity
- The individual or organization that will be carrying out the activity
- All relevant plans, hard copy maps, GIS shapefiles, drawings, or photos
- Any documents shared with other governments such as the Ministry or SCRD regarding the application
- Anticipated start and completion dates for the activity, if applicable
- The economic realities of the proposed activity, including proposed benefits.

Your application will be reviewed through the shíshálh Nation Lands and Resources Decision-Making Policy. Please review our Policy so that you have a full understanding of how the application will be reviewed and a decision made. Further information may be required following our Preliminary Assessment. During our Preliminary Assessment we will determine if archeological studies are required and will be in contact with you to discuss commissioning of the studies.

Important: Land altering activity should not begin until we have completed our review of the project and you have received our approval.

If you are applying for moorage, please see Best Management Practices for Marine Docks, and Best Management Practices for Fresh Water Docks for details on moorage requirements.

Thank you for submitting an application to the shíshálh Nation Rights and Title Department.
